CESSATION OF TURKISH TROOP MOVEMENTS.

Intrusion Due to Local Orders.

(Reuter's Service.)

Constantinople, October 9.
In response to General Harington's letter, Ismet Pasha intimated that he has ordered a cessation of Turkish troop movements. It is explained that the movements both at Ismid and at Chanak were due to purely local orders.

Labour Demands Government's Resignation.

London, October 9.

The National Joint Labour Council, at a meeting in London, to discuss the Near East crisis, passed a resolution demanding the immediate resignation of the Government and the election of a new Parliament.

Discrepancy in 'Allied' Generals' Instructions.

Constantinople, October 9.

The French and Italian Generals from the front at Mudania last night, owing to differences between the British and French texts of the instructions sent from Paris. After supplementary instructions had been asked from Paris, London, and Rome, the Generals left at night for Mudania. It is hoped that the protocol will be signed as soon as further instructions have been received.

Mustapha Kemal has been telegraphically urged to come to Mudania in order to hasten a solution.

Turkish Gendarmerie Allowed to Enter Thrace.

Paris, October 9.

M. Poincare this morning despatched supplementary instructions to General Pelle to disperse misunderstandings at Mudania in regard to the delimitation of the new neutral zone.

A number of Turkish Gendarmerie have been allowed to enter Thrace.

FRENCH SEAMEN'S STRIKE OVER.

Men Accept the New System.

Bordeaux, October 9.

The seamen's strike has ended. All the strikers have agreed to sail under the new conditions.

Dockers and Coal-Trimmers to Come Out.

Marseilles, October 9.

The dockers and coal-trimmers have decided on an immediate strike.

THE MARK'S NEW LOW RECORD.

Fifty a Penny.

London, October 9.

A new low record for the mark was registered in London, the closing quotation being 12,600 to the £2.
The slump was due to heavy Continental selling, following on a wider recognition that Germany is largely meeting reparations payments by the sale of huge quantities of paper marks abroad.

REFUSAL TO RATIFY URQUHART AGREEMENT.

Soviet Blames British Government's Near East Attitude.

Berlin, October 9.

The Soviet's refusal to ratify the Urquhart-Kraasin agreement is based upon the contention that the latest actions of the British Government in disputing Soviet Russia's equality in the Near East, and the Black Sea prevent the friendly and enduring relations which are necessary to the validity of the agreement.

SHIPPING PROBLEMS.

International Committee Meets in London.

London, October 9.

A hundred delegates, representing thirteen countries, were present at a conference of the International Maritime Committee in London. Sir Henry Duke, who was elected President, suggested that the Conference first discuss the question of the liability of sovereign states in respect of ships they owned or operated.

CANADIAN FOREST FIRES.

Eight Thousand Rendered Homeless.

Ottawa, October 9.

Thirty-nine perished in the forest fires in North Ontario. Mr. Drury, Premier of Ontario, estimates that 8,000 persons have been rendered homeless. The damage is given as eight million dollars.

EUROPEAN BANTAM-WEIGHT CHAMPIONSHIP.

Ledoux Beats Harrison.

London, October 9.

At Hanley, in the European bantam-weight 20-round championship contest, the Frenchman, Ledoux (holder), was awarded the fight, Harrison retiring in the eighteenth round.

FRESH DOCK WORKERS' STRIKE AT AMSTERDAM.

Amsterdam, October 9.

A fresh strike of workers at the port on the question of wages has broken out. All work at the port has ceased.

Government Stands Firm.

COMPANY MUST ACCEPT COMMITTEE'S RATES.

Unless the Telephone Company is prepared to accept the rates of subscription recently recommended by the Committee of the two local Chambers of Commerce, its present licence will not be renewed and the Government will enter into no new agreement with the concern.

This is the effect of a resolution which is to be proposed by the Hon. Colonial Secretary at a meeting of the Legislative Council on Thursday afternoon, and which is in the following terms:—
Whereas the China and Japan Telephone and Electric Company, Limited, has requested the Government of Hongkong to grant to it a new Agreement in place of the Agreement which now exists between the Company and the Government;

And Whereas a Report upon the Company's request has been furnished to the Government by the Joint Chambers of Commerce; and Whereas a Representative of the Company has intimated that the Company will not be able to enter upon a new Agreement upon the terms recommended in the said Report;

It is hereby resolved that no new Agreement shall be entered upon between the Company and the Government, unless the Company is prepared to accept the rates of subscription recommended in the said Report and set out in the following Schedule:—

(An annual subscription payable monthly in advance for Victoria, Peak & Kowloon.)

On application by Company to Committee who must satisfy themselves the accounts submitted and service conditions justify same.

Kowloon includes the area South of the old boundary line.

In all districts not included in the above boundaries the same rates apply with the exception that (until such time as it is economically practicable to open further exchanges) there shall be an extra charge of $50 per annum per route mile (or part thereof) from the nearest point on the boundary of the area mentioned in this Schedule or of any exchange hereafter completed.

On the completion of the exchanges at Victoria, Peak, Shaukiwan, Kowloon and Taiipo hereof the annual rates of subscription and other charges for subscribers within the areas of such exchanges shall be at the same rate as those in the above schedule mentioned.

PEKING NEWS.

Reported Post for San Yat-sen.

A Peking telegram states that a rumour prevails in the capital that Dr. Sun Yat-sen will be appointed Superintendent of the Labour Corps which it is proposed to form with disbanded troops.

A grand review of troops by the President will be outside the city to-day (October 10th) from 9 a.m. to noon, in celebration of the anniversary of the Republic.

Tao Kwan has recommended that Admiral Sah Chen-ping be appointed Governor of Fukien.

THE RIALTO.

Local Stocks Booming.

Towards the end of last week there was quite a "boom" experienced in the local stock market, quotations increasing practically all round. Prices had sagged a little before the September settlement, but following this there was a plethora of buyers on the market and prices rose accordingly, some of the local stocks touching record prices.

The rising tendency was still very much in evidence to-day and the demand for shares of all sorts was much greater than the supply. The morning's quotations were in many cases lower than would be given if any shares came out, but it is difficult to buy, there being no sell-off.

Perhaps the main explanation is to be found in the fact that there is a glut of ready money on offer just now. Commerce is still on the slack side and many of the native banks and wealthy Chinese find themselves with hand cash in hand which they wish to invest. They are therefore seeking stock, which promise a fair return, practically all the enquiries on the market being for cash shares. The dealings in forwards are very small.

There is a very general confidence that prices will still further advance before enough shares are brought out to satisfy the demand.

THE FUKIEN INVASION.

Skirmishing Begins.

Peking, Oct. 9.—In response to an urgent request from Fukien, 500 marines attached to the Ministry of Navy have left for Fukien. The Government is still considering the proposal to put Admiral Sah Chen-ping and Tu Hsi-kuei in charge of the Fukien situation.

It is reported that Li Hsi-chi called a meeting of influential persons on October 6th, and appealed to them to raise half a million dollars for war funds.

A skirmish is reported from Kienlin, Li Hsi-chi's troops driving back Wang Yung-chuan's force of 500. The only casualty mentioned is one of Wang's officers killed. Wang's forces abandoned a mountain gun.

Hsu Sang-chi's troops are said to be planning a manoeuvre against Poochow via Santau, Luyuanhsien and Lingtonghsien. The Poochow Army is understood to be awaiting co-operation from Wang Chih-hsien, who is going northwards to help Li Hsi-chi.—Reuter.

TELEGRAM DELAYS.

Chinese Administration Explains.

In our advertisement columns to-day will be found a notice relating to the delay in the receipt of telegrams which come over the Chinese lines from North China, and a representative from the local office of the Chinese Telegraph Administration called at our office to-day to give a little further explanation. He said that the slow working of the land lines, the heavy accumulation of Government messages (which have to be given precedence over private messages), the military censorship and sudden interruptions at mid-way stations are the main causes of the delay. The local office is unable to take any steps to remedy the state of affairs.

When the land lines at mid-way stations are interrupted, telegrams are forwarded by post to the next station to be sent on to destination.

Enquiries have also been made to the local office destined to find out why it is that telegrams are sometimes delivered in duplicate. This is because some telegrams have been sent on by more than one route to guard against mistakes and to remedy, to some extent, the possibility of delay.

OUR BATHING BEACHES.

Commerce Wants More Waterfrontage.

There is some fear felt amongst the bathing enthusiasts of the Colony that they are to lose the beaches between Shaukiwan and Kennedy Town it having been stated that the whole of the foreshore is to be allocated for commercial purposes.

With the exception of the beach of the Chinese Recreation Club at North Point, there is no need for immediate action, the Colonial Secretary (Mr. A. G. M. Fletcher) assured a Telegraph reporter this morning, although Mr. Fletcher expressed the opinion that the time must come when the other beaches would have to surrender to the growing needs of the Colony's trade.

The Electricity Company apparently require more space at North Point and other commercial undertakings there also want land on the foreshore. The Government is to allocate land in the direction of the Ming Yuen Gardens, but there is no immediate intention of interfering with the Government bathing beach or the other beaches on the town side of the Electricity works.

The Chinese Recreation Club's beach will have to go, the pressman was informed, but the Government is prepared to consider offering them a site for a bathing pool, or to assist them in any way possible.

With regard to the other bathing beaches, Mr. Fletcher said there is a great and growing demand for land on the waterfront for commercial purposes, and some day they will have to go. Hongkong is a progressive trading port and the question amounts to: Are we going to put bathing or commerce first?

CANTON NEWS.

The British Loan.

Our Canton correspondent reports that after an entertainment given to the Provincial Assembly members on the 7th, instant in his yamen, during which he explained the nature of the British Loan, the contents of the agreement and the use to which the money will be put, the Provincial Treasurer submitted the whole loan question to the Assembly, at a meeting held on the 8th, instant. As, however, the Chairman and Vice-Chairman were absent, the meeting was adjourned until the 11th. It is stated that the Assembly will demand the appointment of some of its members as supervisors in the use of the loan.

It is stated that the changes in the military system of Kwangtung have been satisfactorily arranged between Generals Chan King-ming and Yip Kue, and that they will be carried into effect as soon as they return to Canton.

Commander Kwau Kwok-hung has obtained delivery of sixty cases of ammunition from the Arsenal for use in the defence of Wuchow.

BRITISH SOLDIERS' GRAVES.

Exhumations at Canton.

A Canton correspondent informs us as follows:—The cemetery of British soldiers' graves outside the East Gate has been the scene of unusual interest of late. The remains of nearly one hundred men have been exhumed, and will be removed to Shamen. The mural tablets on the old city wall remain in position, marking the spot where these gallant men of seventy years ago found their last resting place.

Visitors from the ends of the earth have visited this spot under the shadow of the Five-Storeyed Pagoda, and been thrilled with the romance of history. Alas! the romance of Canton is passing.

YACHTING.

R.H.K.Y.C.'s First Week-End Cruise.

With the exception of a little rain at the commencement, the Clerk of the Weather was kind to members of the Royal Hongkong Yacht Club who participated in the first week-end cruise of the season. In a nice sailing breeze the fleet, consisting of five cruisers, nine racing yachts, a motorboat and the committee launch (kindly supplied by Capt. W. Davison), left the Club at half-past two on Saturday afternoon. The rain which began to fall did not augur well for a successful week-end, but after about half an hour the weather cleared up and remained fine for the rest of the cruise.

On Sunday night the fleet anchored off Hang Hau, at the head of Junk Bay. A rather amusing incident occurred the next morning. A couple of griffins with sporty inclinations spied a bird in the office. The old-timers immediately recognised it as the wily paddy bird and took no further interest. The excitement of the newcomers was aroused, however, and they set off in pursuit. On their return they claimed that they had succeeded bringing their quarry down, but the added statement that they could not find it caused much inward rejoicing in the hearts of the Commodore and the rest of the members.

Before starting on their way, Mr. D.K. Blair organised a swimming race for the "boys." This also did not lack its humorous aspect. Without waiting for the starter, the "boys" dived in and commenced swimming as hard as they could go. One of them did about a quarter of a mile before he came back. It was afterwards discovered that the competitors were only having a try-out and loosening their lungs. The race was subsequently held, the distance being a hundred yards and "Sugar" of the Colleen, was the winner.

At half-past nine the fleet set out for Joss House Bay, taking Tat Hong rock on the port hand. They arrived at Joss House Bay at about eleven o'clock. After a race for the boat "boys," single-handed, was arranged. Colleen took first place, with Ailsa second and Foinette third. The fleet set sail again at a quarter-past four, the destination being Hang Hau. On the way one of the yachtsmen again proved the channel between Fu Tau Chan, known in the Club as Severn's Channel, to be navigable, scoring a considerable advantage by his daring.

The fleet spent Sunday night at Hang Hau and on Monday morning at half-past nine proceeded by way of Cape D'Aguiar to Repulse Bay, where they anchored for the night. Up to this point there was little difference in the times taken by the various craft. After thirty miles of racing there were not three minutes between the first four yachts, the second boat being only 11 secs. ahead of the third.

At half-past three the fleet left Repulse Bay and set out for the home anchorage. As far as Green Island, in Sulphur Channel, they kept fairly well together, but the wind was a bit flighty around this area, with the result that the various craft became separated and the leading yachts reached home about half-an-hour ahead of the last.

The final results were:—Cruisers, 1st, Klobe, sailed by Commodore A. R. Lowe and Mr. D. K. Blair; 2nd, Violet, sailed by Mr. M. J. Henderson. Racing yachts: 1st, Colleen, sailed by Messrs. Hyde and McClatchie; 2nd, Adanar, sailed by Capt. W. Davison, R.N.R.; 3rd, Boojum, sailed by Mr. F. G. Vaux.

It is proposed to hold the official opening of the Club and ladies' day sometime this month.

IMMIGRANT TRAFFIC.

U.S. Official's Views.

So much has been heard of late regarding the existence of a certain influential group of people who make a business proposition out of the risky job of secretly getting immigrants into the United States that it will be of interest to learn the views of Mr. David J. Davis, connected with the U.S. Bureau of Immigration, who has been with us for a number of days with other members of the distinguished commercial party headed by Mr. C. H. Huston, Assistant Secretary of the United States Department of Commerce.

Whilst not being in a position to say how the runners work at this end, Mr. Davis was able to tell a Telegraph reporter of several sensational cases in which rendered desperate by the close watch kept by the Bureau's cruisers, the members of the organization sought by unscrupulous means to rid themselves of the burden of their clients, and escaped conviction in this way. Chinese and other Asiatics who sought to gain admission into America through the agency of this syndicate had to undergo extreme hardships to avoid detection, and Mr. Davis related how in one case several men were discovered almost roasted alive near the chimney stacks of a certain steamer and were later sent back here.

In Mr. Davis' opinion the organization that makes a business of smuggling immigrants into the States is a wide one and possesses its own agents on almost every well-known liner. Usually the practice has been to make its clients bind themselves over to pay a certain percentage of their earnings once a successful passage has been accomplished, and in many cases the immigrants have not been greatly concerned even when such a commitment means a few years' going without money in order to satisfy the exorbitant demands of the syndicate.

EARLIER TELEGRAMS.

THE TURKS AND THE ALLIES.

Mudania, Oct. 9.
The Franco-Italian Generals have handed Ismet Pasha a letter from General Harrington, drawing attention to the grave character of the breaches of Kemal Pasha's pledge to suspend all movements of troops constituted by the violation of the Ismid zone, where one division has crossed the Yaremdujik line and has occupied Kara Yacobi, and cavalry have pushed on as far as Shile on the Black Sea coast, while infantry are reported to have replaced cavalry in the neighbourhood of Chanak.

The letter points out that the British troops have shown the greatest forbearance and as the Powers have now agreed to permit the occupation of Thrace by Turkish gendarmes within a month, provided they withdraw from the Neutral Zone, General Harrington consequently requests the withdrawal of the Turkish forces, otherwise the consequences will devolve on the Nationalists.

Rome, Oct. 9.
The Foreign Minister has notified the Greek Minister that in view of the coming Conference to settle Eastern questions on a basis of a situation substantially different from that created by the Sevres Treaty, Italy considers that her special arrangement with Greece concerning Dodecanese has lapsed.

London, Oct. 9.
The Greek decision to evacuate East Thrace has been officially confirmed.

Athens, Oct. 9.
The Greek Government will continue negotiations regarding the period in which evacuation is to be carried out. Greek newspapers learn that M. Venizelos has received formal assurances regarding the maintenance of Greek sovereignty in Western Thrace.

Paris, Oct. 9.
In a speech at Vaucouleurs, M. Poincare said that France would not repudiate her interests in the East and desired to carry out her mandate in the Levant and Syria. She considered the freedom of the Straits indispensable to the whole of humanity, and in all these questions was ready to reconcile her interests with those of the Allies. He concluded by saying that although France had resolved to insist on her Treaty rights being respected, she was equally resolved not to allow herself to be drawn into bellicose adventures.

Washington, Oct. 9.
President Harding has authorized a national appeal for funds to relieve refugees in the Near East.

"Will the Kemalists accept the terms of the new Allied agreement?" is the question of the moment. It is generally agreed by the morning papers that they should meet all reasonable Turkish demands, and if our French Ally now persuades the Kemalists that she is in earnest about the latest agreement, there is good reason to think that M. Poincare will prove right in his belief in an early settlement, though according to the latest news the Kemalists are at present cavilling regarding the number of Turkish gendarmes to be admitted into Thrace.

The Allies' protest regarding the violation of the Ismid zone has reportedly elicited a categorical statement from Ismet Pasha that orders have been issued to cease military movements in the zone.

Meanwhile, it appears that Russia, where the extremists are reported to have carried a plan for mobilisation in south and south-eastern Russia, has plainly warned Ankara that even a temporary discussion of the question of the Straits without Russian participation will be regarded as a breach of treaty engagements.

Despite the clamour in various quarters for Mr. Lloyd George's resignation, there is no reason to think he has at present the slightest inclination to give up.

The Times probably voices a wide view, even amongst his critics, in deprecating any demand for the immediate resignation of individual ministers so long as the crisis remains unsettled.

AMERICAN LIQUOR LAWS.

New York, Oct. 9.
The new liquor ruling has been received with great misgivings in shipping circles. The Customs officials locked and sealed all bars and liquor supplies aboard vessels arriving yesterday. Even the private supplies of officers and seamen were thus treated. The American Steamship Owners' Association has made a statement contending that American vessels operating to South America, the Orient and elsewhere, unable to serve liquor, will lose their passenger trade to foreign competitors.

CONSTITUTIONAL REFORM.

Mysore, Oct. 9.
It is announced that the proposed constitutional reforms in Mysore State will at least double the present number of voters, for women will obtain the vote. The Representative Assembly will comprise 200 members and the Legislative Council 40, with extended powers.

AMERICAN BONDS.

Washington, Oct. 9.
The Treasury announces the issue of half a milliard dollars thirty year 4½% Treasury Bonds as part of the programme for refunding the short term debt.

AMERICAN BASEBALL.

New York, Oct. 9.
The Giants won their final game with the Yankees, and the baseball championship, by 5 to 2.

LORD ROSEBERY GIVES ESTATE TO HIS HEIR.Mentmore Towers and
5,500 Acres.

Lord Rosebery has transferred Mentmore estate, with its 5,500 acres, and the famous Mentmore Towers, to his son, Lord Dalmeny, after bidding farewell to the tenants.

Last month at Leighton Buzzard market, there was a special gathering of farmers at which the health of Lord Dalmeny was proposed amidst cheers.

The announcement of his decision was made by Lord Rosebery at a farewell function, to which he invited all his tenants on the Mentmore estate. It came as a great surprise, and regret at the decision.

"Good-bye," he is reported to have said, "I shall never see you again."

He spoke in warm and affectionate terms, almost of intimacy, to the 30 farmers gathered round him. Some of them have been associated with the estate even longer than Lord Rosebery, and many have been born and bred there. Lord Dalmeny accompanied his father.

Forthwith Lord Dalmeny took over the estate, the legal preliminaries having been settled.

Practically no change will be made in the management under Lord Dalmeny, and those who are interested in the sporting life of the neighbourhood are looking to him for a renewal of his social life which was a marked feature of Mentmore prior to the war.

Lord Rosebery, who has been in failing health for some time is now 75, and his son is 40.

Lord Dalmeny has been living for the last two years at Burrell Lodge, Wing, about four miles from the mansion.

EX-PREMIERS TO ANSWER
EX-KAISER.Mr. Asquith & M. Viviani
Busy on Memoirs.

With the publication of the ex-Kaiser's book in a few weeks' time, a remarkable "debate" on the Great War will be opened.

This "debate" has been arranged by Mr. Clinton T. Brainard, president of Messrs. Harper Brothers, and president and chief proprietor of the McClure Newspaper Syndicate, the powerful publishing combination which has secured the world rights of the ex-Kaiser's volume of memoirs, for which nearly £50,000 will be paid.

BUSINESS PUSH.

Mr. Brainard, after having been detained in Berlin for some time on account of an operation which he had to undergo, left here on his return to New York, writes the Berlin correspondent of the Daily Chronicle under date Aug. 17. During his stay in Europe he has not only secured the ex-Kaiser's book, but made striking arrangements for two answers to it—one French and one English.

The French volume, in reply to the Royal ex-Kaiser's memoirs, will be by M. Viviani, ex-Premier of France, whose book will follow closely on the ex-Kaiser's, and, I believe, will be a remarkable contribution to the serious literature of the war.

The English reply will be contained in Mr. Asquith's book, the rights of which Mr. Brainard has also secured. Mr. Asquith has promised to suspend practically all his other activities, so that his volume may be ready for serial issue before Christmas.

Though the sum which Mr. Asquith will receive falls a good deal short of what Mr. Brainard pays for the ex-Kaiser's volume, still it will be well up among high figures.

Reports here have it that the one great sensation in the Kaiser's volume will be the story of how he offered temporal power in Germany to the Pope in the event of the Vatican being successful in peace mediation.

A NEW CHINESE HABIT.

Glee Clubs.

At the time of the strike at the Hanyeping Ironworks a somewhat singular organization came into prominence, this being a Glee Club conducted under the auspices of the workmen. It appeared to be a sort of trade union, and the mystery of how it received its name does not seem to have been ever explained. Apparently, however, the idea of a Glee Club has taken hold upon the workers in the vicinity of Hankow and Wuchang, for in connection with the latest outbreak of labour trouble there, that on the Canton-Hankow Railway, another Glee Club has come into being. Cantoneers are conducting it, and under its auspices the arrangements for the strike seem to have been made. The cause of the trouble is put down to harsh treatment of the men by two foremen, whose dismissal is demanded as a condition of returning to work. Looking further into the matter, however, it is found that the workmen are Cantonese while the foremen are northerners, and there is the chance that as much as anything else it is the old feud over again. At any rate the foremen are not to be outdone, for they have now started their own organization and have given it the high-sounding name of Research Club. If this practice goes on much further clubs will become objects of deep suspicion in the country. Some such suspicion must already have been bred by the doings of that interesting Peking body, the Anfu Club, which came to such a bad end, and the feeling will very likely grow.—N.C. Daily News.

TO KEEP CHILDREN WELL DURING HOT WEATHER.

Every mother knows how fatal the hot summer months are to small children. Cholera infantum, diarrhoea, dysentery and stomach troubles are rife at this time and often a precious little life is lost after only a few hours illness. The mother who keeps Baby's Own Tablets, the Canadian children's remedy, in the house feels safe. The occasional use of the Tablets prevents stomach and bowel troubles, or if trouble comes suddenly—as it generally does—the Tablets help bring the baby safely through. They are sold by medicine dealers, or by mail at 60 cents the vial, from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., 90 Southam Road, Shanghai.

HONGKONG, 10th Oct., 1922.

CHINA'S NATIONAL DAY.

Eleven years ago to day the first shot was fired in China's struggle for emancipation from the effete and corrupt Manchurian rule. Starting in Szechuen—which, curiously enough, has just declared its independence afresh—the movement rapidly spread to the Wu-Han region and the south, thence over the whole country until in February 1912 the T'ing dynasty abdicated. That was an astonishing achievement on the part of the new forces. The Dragon Throne was easily the oldest in existence, and so firmly planted in Chinese tradition was it that it seemed inseparable from the land. That such a conservative people should have felt impelled to make short work of it is a striking proof of the corrupt state into which the administration had allowed the country's affairs to fall, until even the long-suffering Chinese subjects would endure the position no longer. High hopes rested upon the change; the Chinese, said to have long been democratic in their own way, were to adopt a new polity of the Western kind, and to emerge as a modern nation.

What has been the result? The provisional Constitution formulated in 1912 not only remains provisional in the technical sense, but in the practical sense has become a dead letter; the Parliament at Peking, re-convened this year after a long string of feuds, is bent more upon factional gains than upon Constitutional-building or any other serious work; and, worst of all, from one end to the other the country is overrun by soldiery who eat up the revenues and carry devastation and by bandits who prey upon trade. No wonder it has been said that things are worse than under the decadent Manchus. Looking around upon the country at the moment, one feels constrained to say that every day sees confusion become more confounded. Encouraging signs are to be met with, indeed, such as the extension of chambers of commerce, the growth of the Press, and the formation of societies; but these are not forces that can act with anything like decisive effect, and so the tragedy-comedy of the Republic of China goes on.

The latest development is "Little Hsu's" scheme for setting up an independent government in Fukien, in conjunction with his old chief, Tuan Chi-jui, and Sun Yat-sen. This looks like the Canton "Provisional Government of China" experiment over again.

At best such devices are of questionable utility, leading towards division rather than unification. The chances are less favourable in Fukien than in Kwangtung, where Sun Yat-sen was on his own heath. At present it is not known whether Sun is disposed to fall in with the scheme. When he departed from Canton for Shanghai, there was a momentary hope of an understanding between the Canton "ex-President" and the northern leaders, but that appears to have faded out, like so many other compacts. Sun, in his ambition to get into power somewhere, perhaps with excellent motives, but with dubious prudence, may join Little Hsu in this latest enterprise, or he may decide that it is not good enough. How his sponsors could hope to rule the Republic from Fukien with so many forces in opposition is not clear, and, regarded as another essay in model local government, it is difficult to believe that success could attend such a trio as Tuan Chi-jui, the ex-leader of the notorious Anfu party, Little Hsu the stormy petrel of Chinese politics, and Sun Yat-sen, who negotiates in all quarters by turn. The Republic's day of relief, it is too plain, is not yet. While there is life there is hope, and China's vitality has been abundantly manifested, which holds out promise of ultimate stability, though no sign of this is yet visible.

Russia in Mongolia.

In a leading article dealing with Russian activity in Mongolia, the Peking Leader says that no excuse whatever can be found for the interference with the governmental functions, the trade, the property and the life generally of Mongolia and the Mongolians which has been going on since the Russian troops went into this territory. Here is the type of interference complained of: "They levy exorbitant import and export duties, they demand taxes of all kinds and in such amounts that it is practically impossible to carry on business; they have even attempted to cancel the title deeds to real estate held in full legal right by other foreigners as well as Chinese. The consequence of all this is that Chinese merchants by the thousands are getting out of Mongolia as best they can after tremendous losses, and the whole system of trade and commercial relations between Mongolia and China has broken down." The journal then goes on to state that there is no possible excuse for this sort of interference by the Russians, and until it is stopped there will be no real chance of satisfactory negotiations between Russia and China.

A Strange Friend.

The comments we have cited above are particularly opportune in view of Dr. Sun Yat-sen's declaration in which he classes Russia as amongst the non-aggressive Powers. If interference of the kind mentioned is not "aggressive," then the current meaning of the word needs radical revision. But in point of fact it is an unwarranted infringement of China's rights, so barefaced and thorough in character, as to amount for all practical purposes to territorial conquest. Yet these are the people with whom Dr. Sun is anxious to fix up an alliance, people who, he says, are willing to treat China as an equal! Does it look like it? How, in view of what is transpiring in Mongolia, Dr. Sun can tell the world that he would prefer an understanding with the Russians than, say, with Britain or America, passes our comprehension. With the facts as they are, it is apparent that so far from being a friend of China's, Russia is a country from whose interference and ambitions China might well pray to be saved.

DAY BY DAY.

ROB THE AVERAGE MAN OF HIS LIFE-ILLUSION AND YOU ROB HIM OF HIS HAPPINESS AT THE SAME TIME.—Idem.

During the past three days, four cases of enteric have been notified (two Chinese and two Indians).

A report reaches the police this afternoon that an armed robbery has been committed at Tsing Wan, in the New Territories. Details are not yet available.

A rattle worker, aged 74, was knocked down and killed by a tramcar at the entrance to Yee Wo Street yesterday afternoon. The body was taken to the Public Mortuary.

A motor cycle collided with a pedestrian in Cause Road on Monday. The victim, who is a male Chinese aged 52, living at Tam Lane, was taken to the Government Civil Hospital.

General Gomes da Costa, a distinguished Portuguese soldier, who saw service in the Great War, is on a visit to Macao to inspect the troops there. He arrived in Hongkong by the P. and O. Dongola.

Besides the Budget Bill and the resolution on the telephone question, the business at Thursday's Legislative Council meeting will include a financial minute relating to Public Works, Extraordinary, and the second reading of the Bill amending the Stamp Ordinance.

Dr. T. W. Pearce of Hongkong visited Canton on Saturday to bid farewell to Dr. A. A. Fulton, who is going to America for ad idem service in Canton. Dr. Pearce has been on the field one year longer than Dr. Fulton, though he is younger in age. Dr. Pearce made a remarkable speech.

The Heungshan, which was held up in Canton owing to twelve members of the crew deserting in consequence of getting into trouble over the smuggling of salt-petre, arrived in Hongkong, without passengers, yesterday. On Sunday, it is reported the Chinese Seamen's Union, upon receiving representations, sent twelve men to Canton by train to replace the deserters and bring the vessel back.

Mr. C. H. Huston and party have returned to the Colony after a couple of days' stay in Canton, where they report having met with a rousing reception. The constant round of engagements made the visit an exceptionally strenuous one, and the impression carried away was one of gratification at the courtesy of the officials and the merchants. The visitors made a tour of inspection of the city and were impressed by the preliminary stages in the reconstruction of the city along modern lines as shown by the wide malloos that have been built or are projected.

Because he was refused a free show, a Sanitary Department coolie sought to assault the gatekeeper of the Peking Theatre last night. After the preliminary argument he went away but later returned with a large brick in one hand and endeavoured to throw it at the head of the attendant. There followed a struggle in the course of which the brick dropped on the attendant's toes with sufficient force to bruise them, according to a statement by Inspector Lanigan. The sequel to the incident was heard in Mr. R. E. Lindell's Court this morning, when, after warning the coolie to behave himself in the future, his Worship imposed a fine of $10 and also ordered the defendant to be bound over.

THE COLONY'S BUDGET.

To Be Introduced on Thursday.

The Budget will be introduced at the meeting of the Legislative Council on Thursday afternoon. The Budget Bill provides for the appropriation of a sum not exceeding $17,869,016 for use in the public service for the year 1923. Compared with last year, this is an increase of nearly a million and a half dollars, the 1922 appropriation totalling $16,450,131.

LIFE IN AUSTRIA.

Hongkong Resident's Impressions.

In a talk with the Hongkong resident who recently gave us his impressions of conditions in Germany, a Telegraph representative gained some interesting information regarding affairs in Austria, which country our informant visited during a holiday in Europe. He stated that many of the former rich people of Austria were now very poor, but, on the other hand, there is ample indication of luxurious living amongst others. For a flat in Vienna, landlords receive about 450 to 600 kronen per quarter, and according to present laws he cannot turn the tenants out. These flats generally have two large rooms, one small room, a kitchen, bathroom and other conveniences. The lessee usually lives in one of the rooms and lets the other two out at from 4,000 to 5,000 kronen a month each, being thus able to secure from 24,000 to 30,000 kronen in three months, compared with the landlord's 450 to 600 kronen.

"The women and girls," he said, "were the best dressed I have ever seen during 36 years' travelling in all parts of the world. They wear fur coats, silk stockings and beautiful footwear, whilst the diamonds and pearls which they wear are almost enough to blind one."

Why Work?

The cafes in Vienna, continued our informant, are packed from early morn until late at night, and it is a common sight to see card players gambling with rolls of banknotes, some times as much as two million kronen, in front of them. On asking these people if they had no work to do, their almost invariable reply would be "What work? The Allies won the war; now they can give us food." And, stated our informant, very few of them do work, as they are able to get plenty of food from the American kitchens and the Red Cross and other relief organisations. They send their children to Holland for six or eight months, as the Dutch people are very charitably disposed. About a million Austrian children are fed and housed and clothed for six or eight months every year in Holland. But the trouble is that these children are mostly from well-to-do families, whereas the poorer children are seldom sent to Holland. And cases have been heard of in which a father whose children are being cared for in Holland goes regularly to the racetrack and gambles in big sums.

"If you wish to change gold money," remarked our informant, "you often have great difficulty in doing so, unless you are prepared to accept half value. They tell you that they have gold enough, and judging from the gold and diamonds in the shop windows, they have, too. As regards foreign money, even the loafers have plenty of it. During my visit I went to Innsbruck and Salzburg, and whilst I was there the kronen made a sudden rise, in consequence of a rumour that Austria was likely to get a loan. This created a belief that the kronen would go higher still, and the banks were soon crowded with working-class people wanting to change their foreign money into kronen. The banks, however, shut their doors, and then many of the people went to Italy and Switzerland to change their money into kronen.

Making Money.

"I was told during my stay in Austria that not a tenthousandth part of Austrian money is in Austria, and I can quite believe it. I was informed that the Government turns out a few milliards in paper money, the notes being inscribed to the effect that they are exchangeable for coin at the Vienna banks, but if you go to the banks the officials ask you if you are mad. The Government seems to sell the paper money to the various banks and get foreign money in return. The banks get five or six weeks to cover themselves and then they sell the kronen to foreign banks. When the banks are covered in this way, the Government is informed, then another few milliards are issued and down goes the value again. The people have any amount of foreign money, whilst foreigners have their money in worthless paper money. They frankly tell you 'You foreigners have our worthless paper money, for which you have had to pay heavily, and we have your money; before long we shall issue marks, and then the old money will be called in and converted.' They have, as I say, plenty of this foreign money and any amount of jewellery, and they say that 'private property cannot be touched.'"

CORRESPONDENCE.

(To the Editor of the "Hongkong Telegraph.")
Our Trees.

Sir,—Last Saturday I was taking a walk from Hongkong to Aberdeen via the Wong Nei Chong Gap and happened to pass a very pretty little forest at a place, so I was told, called Little Hongkong, that is literally being torn to pieces by a Chinese concern for the sole object of procuring firewood.

At different stages in my life I have been widely connected with forestry in both Canada and Australia, and those who have a liking or partial liking for trees would be greatly surprised were they to take a visit to this little village. When I stopped to take note of what was going on, I saw that a big building had been erected for the purpose of cutting the wood up, I should think. I asked one man what was going on and he informed me that they were cutting down these trees for firewood.

It is a downright shame that such fine specimens of trees should be felled for such a purpose as firewood. My informant said that roughly 5,000 trees of diameters varying from seven to twenty inches had been felled since the business started, which was in April, 1921. I said "Surely these fine old trees are not being cut for firewood," and he replied to the effect that chairs and furniture were the object but that not a single one had been made since the concern started; all that had been cut were for firewood. I asked how much the Government was selling the wood for, and was told that it was ten cents per picul. That means a fine old tree of twenty inches diameter would be sold for about $2 to $3. Surely this is outrageous. Although these trees may not be of any value as they stand, I consider ten cents a picul is too much of a joke. I am sure it could be sold at sixty cents locally, even for boat-building, which is of far more use than burning it for firewood.

If those on the way to Repulse Bay from Hongkong were to spare a few minutes and take the first turning to the left after passing the village of Aberdeen they would meet this concern and note what a great pity it is that these trees are being felled. Surely the Government is not so short of funds that it has to start cutting down its trees. All the trees we have in Hongkong have been planted, so I understand; so why should this little forest of nature be cut and hacked about in such a way? Surely something can be done to stop it. I am doubtless not the only lover of trees in Hongkong, and I am sure this protest—if I may call it so—will arouse all other lovers of Nature's works.

Thanking you in anticipation for your kindness in publishing this letter.

Yours etc,

A. GWEN-SMITH.

Hongkong, Oct. 10th., 1922.

ORGAN RECITAL.

The last evening Organ Recital will be given at 9.15 in St. John's Cathedral on Monday, October 16th, after which a new series will be given at an earlier hour. On the present occasion two vocal numbers will be given by the Hongkong Male Voice Choir, an organization of twenty voices, the items chosen being a setting by the late Sir Hubert Parry of some words from Blake's Prophetic Stanzas for voices and organ, and Sullivan's unaccompanied part song "The Long Day Closes." The organ pieces will include Rachmaninoff's Prelude in C sharp minor and the "Storm" by Lemmings, in addition to other pieces, most of which are being given by request.

To-day is the anniversary of the commencement of the revolution at Yunchang, which was responsible for the establishment of the Chinese Republic. Many of the Chinese business houses in Hongkong were closed and both British and Chinese flags were greatly in evidence.

They have, as I say, plenty of this foreign money and any amount of jewellery, and they say that 'private property cannot be touched.'

LADIES' HARBOUR SWIM.

Miss Molly Groundwater Wins.

More favourable conditions than on the previous two years' functions marked the third Ladies' Harbour Swim contested by nine competitors yesterday afternoon. Though there was a slight breeze from the north, the water was not too cold and the sea much less choppy than one would expect at this time of the year. Noteworthy for the low average age of the competitors for such a strenuous contest, the results were even more gratifying, for all the nine competitors finished the course and the winner was one of the youngest of the batch. Miss Molly Groundwater, to whom the distinction has now come of being the winner in the 1922 Ladies' Harbour Race, is under thirteen. Followers of the nautical art will recall the surprise she recently sprang by a fine list of successes in recent ladies' swimming contests, culminating in winning the Ladies' Championship. Yesterday's additional honour shows her to be a very fine swimmer, with considerable powers of endurance.

A feature of the race was that Miss Phyllis Hunt (aged ten) and Miss Doris Hunt (aged eight) took part and both finished the whole distance.

The Race.

The arrangements that were so successful in the promotion of previous years' races, were repeated yesterday in the marking of the course by a line of buoys and the provision of dinghies manned by efficient members of the Victoria Recreation Club in case of distress on the part of any of the swimmers. However, there was no real need for the latter part of the arrangements, as all finished the course.

After the plunge in from the launch on the Kowloon side, the swimmers kept close together, with Mrs. Yip Lai Li, the first Chinese lady to take part in a contest of this kind well ahead. Before one-third of the distance was negotiated, the current began to tell, and there was a tendency to drift eastwards. Mrs. Yip who alternately used the breast and over-arm stroke, was in the best position under these conditions but Miss Molly Groundwater was making good headway in spite of the comparatively longer stretch she had to cover. It was noticeable that whereas the Chinese lady sometimes rested by changing her stroke, the European contestant was chopping the water with steady over-arm strokes. By this time the first four swimmers, who had drawn away from the rest and were keeping close together, were in the following order: Mrs. Yip Lai Li, Miss Molly Groundwater, Miss Thelma May and Miss Muriel Blundson. Following a long way behind were Miss Connie Smith, Miss Enid Cornell, the little sisters Hunt and Miss P. Gerrard.

Miss Groundwater then shaped her course to make direct for the finishing point. The very soon overtook and passed Mrs. Yip, and improved her lead by thirty yards. The same distance separated the Chinese swimmer from Miss Blundson, who had, on her part, passed Miss May, but not by a good third. The same order continued until the finish, when, to the accompaniment of a burst of applause from the large crowd assembled on the Praya wall and from the men on the warships, Miss Groundwater registered a fine win, her time being two seconds less than that taken by Miss G. Ramsay to win last year's event. Mrs. Yip came in a minute and 33 seconds after Miss Groundwater, with Miss Blundson following very closely behind.

The finishing times were as under:

	Mins.	Secs.
1. Miss Molly Groundwater	38	02
2. Mrs. Yip Lai Li	39	33
3. Miss Muriel Blundson	41	47
4. Miss Thelma May	41	47
5. Miss Connie Smith	43	59
6. Miss Enid Cornell	44	55
7. Miss Phyllis Hunt	50	47
8. Miss Doris Hunt	51	17
9. Miss P. Gerrard	57	55

The first prize was presented by Miss B. Pereira, the second by Mr. F. Lammer, and the third by Mr. H. Balyat. All the other ladies will be presented with souvenirs by the V.R.C.

For the purposes of comparison we give the times of last year's competitors:

	Mins.	Secs.
1. Miss Gladys Ramsay	38	02
2. Miss Daisy Witchell	38	38
3. Mrs. Richmond	40	54
4. Mrs. Clems	45	23
5. Maggie Ramsay	47	34
6. Miss Thelma May	52	34
7. Miss Nora Pile	54	34
8. Miss D. May	56	26

The list of Lady Champions is now made up as follows:

	Mins.	Secs.
1920 Miss Ruby Young	37	10 1/5
1921 Miss G. Ramsay	38	02
1922 Miss M. Groundwater	38	02

INTERPORT CRICKET.

Probables v. Possibles.

Bank Holiday allowed of a full-day interport trial match on the Hongkong C.C. ground. Mr. R. Hancock captaining a team of Probables against Mr. A. E. Wood's collection of Possibles. The ground looked in good running condition at the start, but the pitch became worn as play proceeded, the ball rising considerably at times. A goodly gathering watched the match, which furnished an element of surprise, as the Possibles, favoured by first knock, put the Probables in danger of defeat until the clock came to the rescue of the latter. The teams were twelve a side, and it is a little curious that of the nineteen wickets that fell only one was bowled, Evans making no attempt to play a leg ball from Reed that broke in a lot.

The Possibles' captain did well with 63, and Lt. Bacon followed up his success in the first trial game by making top score for his side, beating Wood by one. Seven bowlers were tried, of whom Evans and Sayer were the most successful.

Mitchell and de Rome opened the innings to the attack of Capt. Hancock-Davies and Arculli. After contributing half a dozen, de Rome was caught at a dozen, Hancock-Davies stayed some little while, and then he and Mitchell were dismissed in quick succession, while Webster left after making nine. Then Wood and Bacon got together, and a lengthy partnership ensued while several changes were rung in the bowling. Subsequently there were two or three useful items, but no prolonged stand, and the innings was completed at the excellent total of 261.

For Hancock's side Pearce and Capt. Oliver opened to the bowling of E. G. Lammer (Nava, Yard end) and Reed, Pearce was not long in making a start, but when a couple of on-boundaries off Reed had brought his tally to the unlucky 13 he returned the next ball to the trundler, who captured it within inches of the turf. The same bowler experienced a piece of bad luck almost simultaneously when Capt.

Oliver was let off at point, the batsman profiting by this stroke of fortune to accumulate 73, the highest score of the match. Capt. le Fleming reached double figures before obstructing one from Lammer, who, with his left handed slow-medium deliveries, was maintaining a good length. Sayer and Hancock went cheaply. Capt. Hancock-Davies and Stapleton reached double figures, and Owen Hughes kept his end up, so that when time was called the scoreboard showed 178 for eight wickets.

Reed, still exhibiting the jazz stop at the start of his run, bowled excellently, capturing five wickets at ten runs apiece. He was reserve in the tournament two years ago. This time he looks like earning his colours. The figures of the rest of the half-dozen bowlers tried were not impressive.

Another trial match is to be played on Saturday. Score:

"PHYSICAL RECONSTRUCTION."

Lecture at the University.

A large audience, mainly formed of medical students of the Hong Kong University, listened to an interesting lecture delivered by Lt. Col. Evans on the subject of Physical Reconstruction. The lecture was held in the hall of the Medical Society yesterday afternoon. Dr. H. G. Earle, President of the Medical Society, took the chair.

Lt. Col. Evans is the Head of the Department of Physical Reconstruction in connection with the United States Army and Navy Public Health Service, and is visiting the Colony, arriving here with the Hon. Mr. C. H. Munson, United States Assistant Secretary of Commerce.

The lecturer chose as his subject "Physical Reconstruction." He said that it had been a wonderful opportunity to him for the past four years to know something of the results of the casualties of the war upon humanity, and it had been the work of his staff to make the hard-hips as light as possible.

There were many things that could be referred to under the heading of Physical Reconstruction, and the lecturer, Physical Reconstruction reclaimed the man from the abnormal to the normal. It consisted of two branches: (1) Physio-therapy and (2) Occupational-therapy. Physio-therapy included electro-therapy, hydro-therapy, massage and exercises. It was relatively easy to secure personnel for this class of work, because physicians for years had been using this in treatment of diseases, but with occupational-therapy it was a different matter. The object of occupational-therapy was to prevent the patients from worrying about the future, and in this connection craft work was introduced. At the beginning 75 per cent of the work could be classified as non-purposive, but later it was found that the right thinking men could be better occupied by purposeful things.

As an illustration, Lt. Col. Evans referred to the instance of a brakeman who lost one limb in the war. It was obvious that when he recovered he could not return to his work as a brakeman. Those in charge therefore taught him telegraphy, typewriting and book-keeping, to train him up for office work. In other cases of this kind shorthand was taught.

As to the magnitude of the work Lt. Col. Evans pointed out that at one time they had 64,000 men at 31,000 in training.

Lt. Col. Evans concluded that the success of work of this kind depended largely upon the energy and integrity of the individual himself.

At the conclusion of the lecture Sir William Bragg, Vice-Chancellor of the University, proposed a vote of thanks to Lt. Col. Evans, which was heartily given by the audience.

BRITISH SHIPPING AGENCIES IN JAPAN.

Transferred to Messrs. Mackinnon, Mackenzie & Co.,

It will be noted that as from yesterday's date, the Kido Herald of the 2nd. inst., the Agencies of the P. and O. S.N. Company in Yokohama, Kobe, and Shimoda have been transferred to Messrs. Mackinnon, Mackenzie and Co. (Japan) Ltd., to whom all communications for the P. and O. S.N. Company should now be addressed. The P. and O. S.N. staff in this country have joined the firm of Messrs. Mackinnon, Mackenzie and Co. (Japan) Ltd., and will be as accessible as heretofore in all matters connected with the P. and O. Company's business. The registered address for all telegrams to Messrs. Mackinnon, Mackenzie and Co. (Japan) Ltd. at the above mentioned ports relating to the P. and O. Company will continue to be "Peninsular," Messrs. Mackinnon, Mackenzie and Co. (Japan) Ltd. have also taken over the agencies in Japan of the British India S.N. Co. and the Apsar Line. The Head Office of the new Shipping Company (in Japan) which has for some time past had charge of the Companies' interests at Hongkong, Shanghai and Colombo, will be at this port, the directors of the new firm resident in Japan being Mr. R. E. Kozhevnik, and Mr. R. C. Graff at Yokohama. The parent firm is Mackinnon, Mackenzie & Co., of Calcutta, with branches in Bombay, Colombo, Karachi, Hongkong and Shanghai.

U.S. ARMY REGULATIONS ON SALUTING.

Washington, September 22.—The new army regulations governing saluting are expected to require salutes only when officers and men meet on military reserves or when they come directly into contact on the street or in public places.
